

Job Title Quality control specialist

Division/Department Quality department

Position status Regular Fulltime

Reports to Technical director

Start Earliest 02/2017

PT. Indonesian Tooling Technology is a young and reliable manufacturer of superior precision tooling for mainly the international fastener market. Since the company is growing and operates in a dynamic and growing market, ITT can offer its employees a challenging working environment and opportunities for personal development. As well as investing in product innovation, ITT invests in its employees and organisation.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE JOB

With a growing business, Indonesian Tooling Technology needs an additional quality control clerk in order to support the quality department. Quality control is responsible for checking, controlling and monitoring production output in respect to customer requirements and general standards. The candidate’s tasks are: evaluation of potential quality risks and support of production department to achieve the “zero defects to customer” target. The quality control specialist reports directly to the technical director.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

1	Plan, conduct and monitor testing and inspection of products to ensure finished product quality.
2	Preparation of documentation for final quality control.
3	Monitoring of internal and external deviations.
4	Participation in weekly quality meetings to inform management about recent quality issues.
5	Actively engage in production process improvement to support ITT’s continuous improvement efforts.
6	Close cooperation with production department to achieve maintain high quality standards.

YOUR QUALIFICATIONS
1	1 -2 years working experience within a production facility, quality department preferred.
2	Familiar with production processes and quality measurement equipment.
3	D3 or S1 degree required. D3 or S1 degree in technical or industrial subjects is preferred.
4	Attention to detail, teamwork, open minded and self-motivated.
5	Indonesian is mandatory. Fluent in English (written & communication).
6	Proficient in use of MS Office such as Excel/Word/Outlook.

We are looking forward to your application!